Dear Film Industry Taxpayer,

Taxation and Revenue Department, Audit & Compliance Division (TRD-ACD) is implementing a Film Residency Certification Card for New Mexico (NM) full-time residents to present to a production company when seeking employment.

To receive the card, you must provide the following documentation by mail, email, or in person, and TRD will review the submitted documentation and check the Department’s database for verification of residency.

The following documentation must to be presented by mail, email, or by appointment:

1. Declaration of Residency (DOR) form- completed (Form RPD-41271, can be found on the following TRD website).

2. Clear copy of current NM driver’s license or ID.

3. A copy of two forms of documentation listed on the DOR form. Documents cannot be from the same section.

   For Example: Document one- Section “A.” Utility bill
   Document two- Section “E.” Statement of account

   • Please note: the documents listed on the DOR must not be more than three months old.
   • The supporting documents for the DOR must have the same name and physical address as it appears on the DOR and/or on current NM driver’s license.

4. If individual is a minor or being claimed as a dependent, parent(s)/guardian(s) information must be on the supporting documents for the DOR. Parent(s)/guardian(s) must have the same name and physical address as it appears on the DOR and/or on current NM driver’s license.
   • If a minor, a copy of his/her birth certificate and/or past port.
   • If the individual seeking employment has a NM driver’s license or ID, a clear copy must be included.

For Example:
