November 13, 2020

Dear Sir or Madam:

For the past several years, the New Mexico Property Tax Division-State Assessed Properties Bureau has been working towards creating a program for E-Filing, and I am happy to announce that this program has been successfully designed and will be fully implemented to go live for Tax Year 2022!

As we continue to work with our vendor to finalize this project throughout the 2021 calendar year, we may be calling upon many of you for assistance with incorporating your company's information into the new system prior to the inception date. Once we advance closer to this date, our team will provide the training and assistance necessary for our taxpayers and their authorized representatives to navigate the new E-Filing system effectively.

In the interim, we are quickly approaching the Tax Year 2021 filing season, and with all the challenges the world has faced this year with the COVID-19 pandemic and pondering the uncertainty of the future as things continue to change daily, we have made some changes to the submission process for the upcoming tax year. We are asking that you please continue to prepare your property tax renditions as usual but submit them via email to NMTRD.SAPB@state.nm.us. This will assist all of us in ensuring your reports are properly filed and received in a timely and more efficient manner. If you anticipate requesting an extension of time to file, please complete the CAB-EXT form and submit it via the email address above as well. All filing forms and instructions are on our website at <http://www.tax.newmexico.gov/Businesses/state-assessed-properties.aspx>.

Lastly, per New Mexico statutory mandate, the Bureau is required to mail out Notices of Value. For Tax Year 2021 and only upon written taxpayer request, the Notice of Value may be sent out to a valid email address provided by the taxpayer.

If you have any questions, please contact Elaisa Romero, State Assessed Bureau Chief, at (505) 490-1685 or email elaisa.romero@state.nm.us.

Thank you for your time & cooperation and may you all stay safe and healthy.

Best regards,

Santiago Chavez,
Director
NM Property Tax Division

MINERAL PRODUCER INSTRUCTIONS

- A. The value of mineral property is determined according to the special methods of valuation as described in the following sections of the Property Tax Code:
1. Section 7-36-23 NMSA 1978, All Minerals Except Potash and Uranium;
 2. Section 7-36-24 NMSA 1978, Potash Mineral Property; and
 3. Section 7-36-25 NMSA 1978, Uranium Mineral Property

NOTE: A copy of the Annual Report to Stockholders, recent prospectus reports and copy of the 10-K report of the company (and of the parent company, if any) must be submitted to the State Assessed Property Bureau. An audited income statement and balance sheet for each mine in New Mexico must accompany this report.

- B. If listing assets on the reporting forms, items purchased in the same year with a similar description can be grouped rather than listed individually. Printouts or existing lists of assets may be used if they contain the same information requested. The costs reported for all assets must be reconciled with the cost in the current assets, land, fixed assets, deferred mine development, deferred exploration and other asset accounts on the balance sheet. Give descriptions and explanations of the reconciling items and attach this reconciliation to the copy of the balance sheet that accompanies the Annual Rendition of Property.
- C. Items of capital investment that are not taxable for property tax purposes:
1. Intangible property - see State Assessed Property Bureau Regulation 7-35-2 NMSA 1978 and 3 NMAC 6.1.7.4. Internal Revenue Regulations are not the criteria used to determine whether the property is tangible or not;
 2. Pollution Control Facilities - When financed by an industrial revenue bond or pollution control bond, see Section 7-36-3 NMSA 1978;
 3. New Mexico Licensed Motor Vehicles;
 4. The cost of digging pits, shafts, drifts and other similar artificial changes in the physical condition of the surface or subsurface of the earth produced solely by the removal or rearrangement of the earth for the purpose of exposing or removing ore from a mine, see Section 7-36-23(B)(1) NMSA 1978.

- D. CAB-08 Form, Leased or Rented Real and Personal Property. (See General Instruction G-8)
Use to report all leased or rented property where the tax liability rests with the lessor.

- E. CAB-05 Form, Report of Personal Property (See General Instruction G-5)

Use to report:

1. Office furniture, equipment, machinery, materials and supplies and other personal property. To determine the property value, multiply the factor from Percent Good Table 6, 10, 14, or 15 times the original cost. The property value of materials and supplies is 100% of the purchase price. All materials and supplies held or used by a mining operation are taxable.
2. Machinery, equipment and other personal property used in the extraction of the mineral or minerals. Use Percent Good Table 10 and the purchase date to determine the factor. Multiply this percent good factor times the original cost to obtain the property value (Motor vehicles licensed in New Mexico are not subject to property taxes).
3. All machinery, equipment and other personal property in the milling, crushing and other primary preparations of the mineral or minerals. Those operators who produce a finished or manufactured product are required to report the additional machinery, equipment and personal property used in the additional processes.
4. To report railroad cars and locomotives. Use Percent Good Table 15 and the purchase date to obtain the percent good factor.

NOTE: All manufactured (mobile) homes are to be reported to the county assessor of the county where they are located. DO NOT REPORT ANY MANUFACTURED HOMES TO THE STATE ASSESSED PROPERTY BUREAU.

F. CAB-04 Form, Real Estate, Buildings and Improvements (See General Instruction G-4)

Use to report:

1. All land improvements held or used in connection with mineral property. Land improvements means constructed or purchased improvements other than buildings, and either added to land or on land. Land improvements include but are not limited to paved surfaces, drainage facilities, sewers, bridges, fences, landscaping, railroad track and bedding, pipelines and other inherently permanent physical structures. List all Land improvements with a complete legal description of the location. Use Percent Good Table 20 and the purchase or construction date to determine the correct factor.
2. Buildings and their structural components. Buildings include but is not limited to: warehouses, factories, garages, machine shops, office buildings, residential housing and structures containing machinery and equipment that are not an integral part of that machinery and equipment. Use Percent Good Table 45 and the purchase date to obtain the correct factor.

NOTE: Real estate, land improvements, buildings and structural components of buildings must have a legal description of the location. The description must be of sufficient detail to allow the county assessor to accurately map the individual item of property.

G. CAB-06 Form, Construction Work in Progress (See General Instruction G-6)

Use to report all construction work in progress.

H. CAB-M1 Form, Page 1, Mineral Property Valuation Schedule.

Use this form to report the following property (indicate the type of property by a check mark in the appropriate box).

1. All Class One non-producing mineral property owned or leased by the company. List legal description and acreage only. The State Assessed Property Bureau will add surface value.
2. All Class 1, 2, or 3 productive mineral property (see Section 7-36-22 NMSA 1978) owned or leased by the company. List legal description and acreage only. The State Assessed Property Bureau will add surface value.

If your property does not contain minerals in commercially workable quantities that add present value to the property in addition to its values for other purposes, it is not to be classified as Nonproductive Mineral Property but as Non-mineral Property and valued by the county assessor of the county where the land is located, unless it is held in connection with mineral property. Complete CAB-M1 Form, Page 1 (for description only) and CAB-M4 Form, Affidavit for Non-mineral Classification.

If your property does contain minerals in commercially workable quantities, complete Form CAB-M1, Page 1 in the following manner:

1. Complete all information requested on this form.
2. Give a complete legal description of the location. Use the deed, title or the copy on file at the county clerk's office and quote the description.
3. List the mineral(s) contained in the land.
4. If the land (or any portion of the land) being reported is used for grazing or other agricultural purpose, see CAB-07 Form, Application for Agricultural Usage.
5. State Assessed Property Bureau staff will enter the Mineral Property Value and the Surface Property Value. Do not enter a value at this time.
6. Do not list buildings, machinery and other real and (or) personal property on this form.
7. POTASH AND URANIUM PRODUCERS ONLY: List all land where product was mined in the last calendar year including state, federal, and Indian leases.

I. CAB-M1, Page 2, Allocation of Mineral Property Value by New Mexico County and School District.

This form is to be used by all mineral producers to allocate the property value of productive mineral property from CAB-M2 Form, Page 1, Line 13a or Line 13b (Potash producers must use Line 11 of CAB-M2, Page 1 to allocate the value of production.) The allocation is based on the tons of ore mined in a given school district to the total tons of ore mined in New Mexico.

J. CAB-M2 Form, Pages 1 and 2, Mineral Production Summary.

This form is to be used by all mineral producers (Additional Instructions also apply to Potash and Uranium Producers.)

1. All income from the sales of minerals, mineral products, byproducts and other income from the operation of a mine, smelter or other refining plant must be reported on this form.
2. Detail of the accounts comprising the direct costs of extracting, milling, treating, reducing, transporting and selling the minerals must be attached. An income statement and balance sheet for each mine operating in New Mexico must accompany the annual rendition.
3. Detail of depreciation of assets actually used in the extracting, milling treating, reducing and transporting of the minerals must be attached. Only a straight-line depreciation basis based on the useful economic life of the asset is acceptable. Accelerated depreciation is not acceptable.
4. All mineral producers electing to use the five-year average of annual net production value use this form. If five-year average has been used in the past, it must be continued even if no minerals were produced or sold during the prior calendar year. If the five-year average has been used in the past, permission must be obtained from the Property Tax Division director to change to the one-year method. Uranium or Potash Producers do not qualify for five-year averaging.
5. Detail of the product(s) units sold to unrelated customers, product sold or delivered to related or subsidiary companies, and product(s) consumed or used in the respondent's operation must be attached. If your operation uses or consumes the extracted mineral product, state the use or end product. If your sales are not equal to production, report the product(s) units that you have extracted and stockpiled for later delivery and/or sale.
6. List the units of all minerals produced during the preceding calendar year. Production can be greater or less than sales, depending on consumption by producer or inventories. Multiply the average sales price (gross receipts from sales divided by total units sold of each mineral) times the units produced to arrive at the Gross Production Value. From the Gross Production Value subtract the "direct costs" of extraction, milling, treating, reducing, transporting and selling the minerals.
7. POTASH PRODUCERS ONLY. Potash producers must use Columns 1 and 2 to report the prior years' production. Identify the product as "Muriate of Potash" or "Sulfate of Potash" on Line 14. Use Lines 15 through 17, 18 through 20, and 21 through 23 to differentiate the muriate or sulfate of potash by grade (standard, coarse, granular and other). Line 23a is the total value of subgrade products posted from CAB-M3, Page 1. Line 25 is the total of Columns 1 and 2, lines 17, 20, 23, 23a and 24. This total is posted on Line 1, Page 1.
On Page 1, complete lines 1 through 6, 8, and 11. Line 6, Property Value of improvements, is allocated on CAB-M3 Form and Line 11, Annual Net Production Value, is allocated on CAB-M1 Form, Page 2.
8. URANIUM PRODUCERS ONLY. Uranium producers must use Column 1 only. Complete Lines 15 through 25 and post to Line 1, Page 1.
On Page 1, complete Lines 2 through 6, 8, and 11. On Line 12a complete the percentage of the underground deduction as follows:
 1. Tons of ore mined underground _____
 2. Total tons of ore mined _____
(Surface and underground)
 3. Percentage mined underground _____
(Line 1 divided by Line 2)

Post this percentage to Line 12a. Calculate the uranium deduction by multiplying Line 11 times the percentage on Line 12a times 50%. The uranium property value determined on Line 13a is allocated on CAB-M1 Form.

K. CAB-M3 Form, Page 1, Potash Assessment Schedule.

This form is to be used by all potash producers to value sub-grade mineral products used in processing of potassium sulfate. The market value determined on Line 7 is posted to Form CAB-M2, Page 2, and Line 23a.

L. CAB-M3 Form, Page 2, Allocation of Potash Mineral Property by New Mexico County and School District.

Use this schedule to allocate the property value of improvement determined on CAB-M2 Form, Page 1, and Line 6. The allocation is based on the original cost of all property in a given school district as compared to the cost of all property of the potash operation in New Mexico.

M. CAB-M4 Form, Affidavit for Non-mineral Classification.

This affidavit for Non-mineral Classification is to be completed when the mineral property meets the following criteria:

1. Was not mined or operated in good faith for its mineral values.
2. Was not known to contain minerals in commercially workable quantities and
3. "Development expenditures" are not attributable to the property during any of the ten years immediately prior to this tax year.

N. DEFINITIONS
