

N E W M E X I C O

Michelle Lujan Grisham
Governor

Stephanie Schardin Clarke
Cabinet Secretary

Media Contact: Charlie Moore
Charlie.Moore@state.nm.us
(505) 670-5406

May 6, 2022

Mora County property tax deadline extended
Taxation and Revenue approves three-month extension for 2nd half 2021 payments

SANTA FE – The Taxation and Revenue Department has approved a three-month extension for payment of 2021 property taxes in Mora County.

Payment of the second half of 2021 property taxes would normally be due April 10, 2022, although taxpayers had until May 10 before being considered delinquent. Under the extension approved Friday, the second half payments will be due on July 11, 2022, but taxpayers would have until August 11, 2022, before the tax would be deemed delinquent under the Property Tax Code.

The extension was requested by Mora County officials due to the wildfire emergency.

“Our hearts go out to the people of Mora for the horrendous experience they are going through right now, and we will work with the county to fullest extent of our ability,” said Secretary of Taxation and Revenue Stephanie Schardin Clarke.

###

The Taxation and Revenue Department serves the State of New Mexico by providing fair and efficient tax and motor vehicle services. It administers more than 35 tax programs and distributes revenue to the State and to local and tribal governments throughout New Mexico.

The Department strives to reduce taxpayer burden through clearer communication, statutes, regulations, forms, correspondence and instructions.

Connect with us on tax.newmexico.gov, LinkedIn, YouTube and Twitter @NM_MVD