FORMAL PROTEST Instructions

Who is required to submit ACD-31094

Use this form to file a formal protest pursuant to Section 7-1-24 NMSA 1978.

A taxpayer may dispute:

- (1) the assessment to the taxpayer of any amount over $50 of tax;
- (2) the application to the taxpayer of any provision of the Tax Administration Act (TAA) except of a subpoena or summons; OR
- (3) the denial of or a failure either to allow or to deny a:
 - (a) credit or rebate OR
 - (b) claim for refund made in accordance with Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

In the case that your protest is as a result of a partial denial or a full denial of a refund, you are able to use one of the two methods below based on Section 7-1-26(E) NMSA 1978:

(1) direct to the secretary, pursuant to the provisions of Section 7-1-24 NMSA 1978, a written protest that sets forth:

(a) the circumstances of:

- 1) an alleged overpayment;
- 2) a denied credit;
- 3) a denied rebate; or
- 4) a denial of a prior right to property levied upon by

Tax & Rev;

(b) an allegation that, because of that overpayment or denial, the state is indebted to the taxpayer for a specified amount, including any allowed interest, or for the property;

(c) a demand for the refund to the taxpayer of that amount or that property; and

(d) a recitation of the facts of the claim for refund; OR

(2) commence a civil action in the district court for Santa Fe county by filing a complaint setting forth the circumstance of the claimed overpayment, denied credit or rebate or denial of a prior right to property levied upon by Tax & Rev alleging that on account thereof the state is indebted to the plaintiff in the amount or property stated, together with any interest allowable, demanding the refund to the plaintiff of that amount or property and reciting the facts of the claim for refund. The plaintiff or the secretary may appeal from any final decision or order of the district court to the court of appeals.

Deadline for a protest submission

A protest by a taxpayer shall be filed within 90 days after:

- (1) the date of the mailing to the taxpayer by Tax & Rev of the notice of assessment and demand for payment as provided in Subsection A or D of Section 7-1-17 NMSA 1978;
- (2) the mailing of the other peremptory notice or demand;
- (3) the date of the application to the taxpayer of the applicable provision of the TAA; or
- (4) the date of denial of a claim pursuant to Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978 or the last date upon which Tax & Rev was required to take action on the claim but failed to take action (180 days after the claim for refund was mailed or otherwise delivered, the taxpayer may choose to treat the claim as denied to pursue protest as a remedy).

Using the Taxpayer Access Point (TAP) to submit a protest

Log into the taxpayers Taxpayer Access Point (TAP) <https://tap.state.nm.us/Tab> account that the protest is going to be filed for.

Go to the tax program tile that you will be filing the protest for and select "More Account Options". On the "Protest" tile, select "Protest a Letter". You will then need to enter the Letter ID from the top right hand corner of the letter from Tax & Rev. If that letter is seen by the system as being eligible for a protest it will ask you further questions. You may electronically attach any supporting documentation before submitting your protest.

If for some reason you are unable to file your protest through TAP based on the letter ID, and the 90 day window for your protest is still open or you do not have a Letter ID to submit through TAP, please fill out this paper application and submit it as outlined in the How to submit this form to Tax & Rev section of these instructions.

If you are successful in submitting your protest in TAP, you will be provided with a confirmation number that you can use when talking with a Tax & Rev staff member about the submission. If you have a questions about your filed protest you can either call (505) 827-9806 or email Protest.Office@tax.nm.gov.
