Delinquent property tax auctions scheduled in March

SANTA FE – The Taxation and Revenue Department will hold delinquent property tax auctions in Harding, Union and Colfax Counties in March, allowing attendees to submit bids for the properties.

The auctions are intended to collect delinquent property taxes when taxes have been delinquent for at least four years. The state notifies delinquent taxpayers about the taxes due and planned sales of property. If the state is unable to collect the delinquent taxes, the subject properties are auctioned for sale.

Auctions have been scheduled in the following counties:

- Harding County, 1 p.m., March 2, Commission Chambers – 35 Pine St., Mosquero, N.M. 87733
- Union County, 10 a.m., March 3, Commission Chambers – 200 Court St., Clayton, N.M. 88415
- Colfax County, 10 a.m., March 4 & 5, 230 North 3rd St., Raton, N.M. 87740

Successful bidders are required to make payment in full prior to the conclusion of the auction by money order, certified check, cashier's check or a personal or business check if accompanied by a bank letter of credit that guarantees payment in at least the amount bid.

More information, including terms of the auction sales, announcement of future auctions and frequently asked questions, is available on the Delinquent Property Tax Auctions page, at tax.newmexico.gov under Business, then under Property Tax. If you need assistance or have questions, call 505-827-0883.

Registration begins in person at 8 a.m. on the day of the auction and ends promptly at auction time. Bidders must be registered to participate.

If all accounts are paid in full in advance of the auction, the auction will be canceled.
