Delinquent property tax auctions scheduled

The Taxation and Revenue Department has scheduled delinquent property tax auctions in DeBaca and Roosevelt Counties.

The state attempts to collect delinquent property taxes when counties are unable to do so. If the state is unable to collect the delinquent taxes, the subject properties are auctioned for sale.

Auctions have been scheduled in the following counties:

DeBaca County. When: 11 a.m., Wednesday, May 4, 2022. Where: 248 E. Ave. C, Fort Sumner.

Roosevelt County. When: 10 a.m., Thursday, May 5, 2022. Where: 109 W. 1st Street Lobby Box 3, Portales.

The Department expects to schedule more auctions in the coming weeks.

More information, including terms of the auction sales, is available on the Department's website. Announcements of future auctions also will be available there.

Registration begins in person one hour before the auction starts and ends promptly at auction time. Bidders must be registered to participate.

Bidders are encouraged to maintain safe social distancing and should follow any COVID-safe protocols and restrictions required by the counties where the auctions are held. Please contact the appropriate County Treasurer's Office for more information.

The Taxation and Revenue Department serves the State of New Mexico by providing fair and efficient tax and motor vehicle services. It administers more than 35 tax programs and distributes revenue to the State and to local and tribal governments throughout New Mexico.

The Department strives to reduce taxpayer burden through clearer communication, statutes, regulations, forms, correspondence and instructions.
