New multi-year tax forms available

The Taxation and Revenue Department's Tax Information and Policy Office has released a number of updated forms, which have been converted to multi-year format. Multi-year forms make it easier on taxpayers, tax preparers and tax software providers because they do not have to locate new versions every tax year.

The below updated forms are available at <http://www.tax.newmexico.gov/forms-publications.aspx>:

- PIT-4, Preservation of Cultural Property Credit Form, Rev. 07/13/2020
 - released as multi-year last year, pulled to update
- CIT-3, Corporate Child Care Credit, Rev. 07/13/2020
 - released as multi-year last year, pulled to update
- CIT-4, Preservation of Cultural Property Credit Form, Rev. 07/13/2020
 - released as multi-year last year, pulled to update
- RPD-41338, Taxpayer Waiver for Preparers Electronic Filing Requirement, Rev. 07/15/2020
- PIT-8453, Declaration for Electronic Filing & Transmittal, Rev. 07/15/2020
- PIT-Childcare, PIT-Childcare, New Mexico Child Day Care Credit Worksheet, Rev. 07/15/2020
- Schedule CC, Alternative Tax Schedule, Rev. 07/15/2020

We have also attached the most current Form Revision and Release Dates. This document is updated as new or updated forms are posted to the website. An updated version can be located at the bottom of this page: <http://www.tax.newmexico.gov/Tax-Professionals/software-developers.aspx>.

Any questions or concerns should be directed to Policy.Office@state.nm.us.

If you would like to automatically receive notice when forms are added or updated, please consider signing up for the Department's notification service. More information
